DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to preliminary amendment filed on 9/29/04.

Claims 1 – 19 have been canceled. Claims 20 – 38 have been added. Claims 20 – 38 are pending on this application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 20 – 38 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 20, in addition to other elements in the claim, prior art considered individual or combination does not teach, a method for function testing an analog-digital converter, comprising: the analog-digital converter being blocked to prevent use of at least the other reference voltage, in particular the second reference voltage, by the analog-digital converter, a predetermined analog signal being converted into a digital signal for the function test and the digital signal being analyzed.

With respect to claims 37 and 38, in addition to other elements in each respective claim, prior art considered individual or combination does not teach or suggest an analog-to-digital converter for function testing comprising: first means being included which block the analog-digital converter so that use of at least the other reference voltage, in particular the second reference voltage, by the analog-digital converter is prevented, a predetermined analog signal being converted into a digital signal for the function test, and second means being included that analyze the digital signal formed by the conversion.

Art Unit: 3992

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
